SUMMER READING CHALLENGE 2015

Do you want to be a RECORD BREAKER?
Then join us at Central Library for the official launch of the Summer Reading Challenge on Saturday 11th July 2015

Join us for a record breaking performance of:

'My Dad - The World's Greatest Failure'

Show times: 10.30am & 12.15pm

Told from the point of view of a young boy whose dad is obsessed with trying to achieve a Guinness World Record. He fails at everything, much to the embarrassment of the boy. On the day the dad finally decides to give up on it (after a particularly dangerous fail!!!) a letter comes through the post with a big surprise.

Then join author Rachel Lyon, 11am – 12pm with a special story time featuring her book 'I Wish I'd Been Born a Unicorn' which is one of this year's recommended reads for the 2015 Summer Reading Challenge.

I Wish I'd Been Born a Unicorn is a charming story about a hygienically challenged horse called Mucky, who thinks that he would have friends if only he'd been born a unicorn. Mucky learns that true friendship comes from those who don't care how you look, but care how you feel.

Places are free just turn up!
